HERING AG supplies 5 additional heat recovery steam generators (HRSG's) to Puerto Rico

Puerto Rico and the pharmaceutical industry based there are developing more and more into an emerging market for HERING AG. Over the last two years, HERING AG has delivered and commissioned several steam generator systems to our customers on the Caribbean island.

The heat recovery steam generators are supply various well-known pharmaceutical companies with saturated steam and sterilize the production facilities on site.

We currently have 4 additional heat recovery steam generators for the pharmaceutical industry in production.
